

Omniversal Media Internal Report

Field Dispatch Journalistic Integrity Memo

Date: August 01, 2025

Submitted by: Ethan Womack

Entity: Omniversal Media, LLC

Subject: Dragon Hawk Protocol Activation & Safety Threat Escalation

Executive Summary

This memorandum serves as an official journalistic synopsis documenting the activation of Dragon Hawk Protocol in response to recurring safety and administrative negligence observed within the operational grid of Amazon (TPA4).

As both a direct participant within the system and the legally acknowledged owner/operator of Omniversal Media, LLC, I have issued prior notice to stakeholders-including Human Resources, Safety Leadership, and Security Personnel-that continued attempts to gaslight, ignore, or redirect legitimate safety concerns will not only be resisted, but formally documented, published, and, if necessary, litigated.

Contextual Markers

- Date of Initial Escalation: Friday, July 26, 2025
- Subject Line: Dragon Hawk Protocol - Immediate Attention Required
- Delivery Channel: Amazon internal email, CC'd to relevant department leads
- Content Highlights:

Omniversal Media Internal Report

- Unprofessional conduct and escalation by contracted security staff
- Breakdown in HR response protocol
- Workplace safety violations tied to improper PPE guidance
- Statement of refusal to accept arbitrary, illusory control mechanisms
- Legal declaration:

"You have already issued payment(s) to Omniversal Media, LLC - handle this message with care."

Legal Standing

Amazon has issued over $1,000 in payments to Omniversal Media, LLC via ACH transfer, including a recent documented deposit of $13.00. This financial trail establishes a direct commercial relationship between the employer and the media entity now investigating its practices.

As such, any content, critique, or publication originating from Omniversal Media in relation to these events is covered under:

- First Amendment protections of the press
- Journalistic shield laws (as applied under Florida and federal frameworks)
- Whistleblower statutes protecting workers reporting unsafe or unethical practices
- Electronic communications statutes, as all notices were digitally archived

Conclusion

Omniversal Media, LLC hereby affirms that it is acting in its capacity as an independent media outlet, and that any attempt to silence, penalize, or obfuscate matters surrounding this situation will be construed as retaliation against protected journalistic activity.

Omniversal Media Internal Report

This memorandum is a formal record of internal escalation, and shall remain on file.

Footnote:

"This isn't an employee complaint.

This is the system reporting itself,

via the one man who was watching the whole time."
